Scope of supply

If you order the ECN O&M Tool, the following files will be delivered:

- ECN O&M Tool 4-4 Empty.xls
(empty version of the tool)
ECN O&M Tool 4-4 DemoK13.xls
(tool with reference study: large wind farm, far offshore, large turbines)
- ECN O&M Tool 4-4 DemoProbK13.xls
(tool with reference study for probabilistic analyses)
- User manual with model description and informative annexes (a.o. generic failure rates, access vessels and crane ships)
- An MS-Word file with the public reference study to be used as an example and as reporting template

Included in the price is one day technical and software support (by telephone and/or e-mail, not on-site). Not included is the MS Excel add-in module "@Risk" for uncertainty analyses.

Any update of the software released within one year after the date that ECN has received the signed order form will be sent to Licensee free of charge.

The software and documentation are written in English.

Optional: Maintenance

It is possible to order additional maintenance and support. If the additional maintenance is not ordered through this order form, ECN will contact you before the end of the one-year support period to offer you the possibility of a service contract. This entitles the user to updates of the software, if available, and a maximum of 16 man-hours software support (by telephone and/or e-mail, not on-site) for another year.

Optional: Three Day Training

If you also order the training, we will contact you as soon as possible to make arrangements for the date and venue. The stated price for the training includes the preparation of the course, handouts, lunch at ECN, etc. The stated price for the training is valid when the training is held at ECN's facilities and includes the preparation of the course, handouts, lunch at ECN, etc. If you prefer training in-house, the travel expenses and travel time for two ECN employees will be charged additionally. The invoice will be sent after the first two days of training are given. The payment is to be made within 30 days after invoicing.

This order form and prices mentioned are valid until 31 December 2012.
